

Local rugby talent to feature on provincial squads

The Sun Times (Owen Sound) · 18 Jul 2023 · B1 · GREG COWAN

Four Girls from the dynastic Owen Sound District Secondary School Wolves women's rugby team have been selected to represent Ontario in the Team Ontario Junior Blues program.

Ally Dunn and Taylor Chester will play for the Ontario Junior Blues under-17 West team and head to Brock University to compete in The Ontario Cup at the end of the month. Ava Guindon and Natalie Madill have been selected to play for the Team Ontario Junior Blues under-18 women's team and will travel to Calgary to compete in the Western Canadian Championship on August 4 to 6. All four girls will return to OSDSS and Coach Rob Lee in the fall to prepare for the OSDSS Girls' rugby trip to England and Wales happening in March 2024. The Ontario Blues and Ontario Junior Blues provincial rugby teams select players based on performance and potential demonstrated at the provincial tryouts, as well as identification through high school, college, and university rugby, the top 60 athletes in each age grade are selected to train together until team selection.
